SEASIDE HEIGHTS TO CONTINUE FREE MOVIES ON THE BEACH
DURING 2016 SUMMER

SEASIDE HEIGHTS, NJ – What better way to watch Jaws than under the stars with your toes in the sand and the roar of the Atlantic Ocean in the background? The Borough of Seaside Heights kicks off its second installment of “Movies on the Beach” on Sunday, July 3 at 8:30 p.m. with a screening of the classic thriller, Jaws.

“We really saw a huge turnout each week last summer and realized that this is what the people wanted, so we gave it to them,” said Austin Sommerer, director of entertainment for the Borough.

Beginning on Sunday, the Borough will host patrons on the Brighton Ave. beach every Sunday and Tuesday evening at sundown for a free movie. The selection of movies ranges from classic movies such as Jaws, to contemporary family-friendly films such as Frozen. A full schedule of the movies is online at www.exit82.com.

People of all ages are welcome. Patrons are encouraged to bring friends, family and even pets to the beach for an evening of enjoyment. Patrons are also encouraged to bring chairs and blankets to enhance their viewing experience.

No food or refreshments are provided so patrons are encouraged to bring snacks if they wish to do so. There are several garbage receptacles on-site and litterers will not be tolerated.

“This is really a great thing for the community,” said Sommerer. “It fosters a community of friendship, which I think is a huge part of why tourists choose to come back here year after year.”

The movies will be hosted every Sunday and Tuesday evening beginning on July 3 and ending August 30.

“Free Movies on the Beach” is sponsored by the Borough of Seaside Heights’ Business Improvement District. Seaside Heights is a bustling Jersey Shore town that has a lot to offer its tourists and residents alike. The boardwalk and the sandy beaches attracts thousands of tourists every year.
